SWITCH DERAILS TRAIN; FIREMAN DEAD

ATLANTA, Jan. 10.—When a passenger train on the Georgia railroad took an open switch at Macon, Georgia, this morning, Henry Sears, a fireman, was instantly killed and Engineer badly hurt. None of the passengers were hurt, however. The smashup occurred 80 miles from here and was due to the work of a notorious band of train wreckers. Bloodhounds have been on their trail.

WORLD REJOICING OVER ALLIES' EVACUATION

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 10.—Wild rejoicing follows the evacuation of Gallipoli by the Allies. Special services are being held in the mosques. The war office reports that heavy losses have been inflicted on the enemy during the last days of fighting and that Turkish artillery has been in sinking a transport. The belief prevails that the Allies' forces will be sent to Saloniki. Heavy guns sent from the peninsula, which will probably cause the hostile forces to retire out of range.

REVOLT IN CHINA SPREADS.
HONG KONG, Jan. 10.—The anti-monarchist movement in China is spreading. It is reported that the rebels have already captured Tan Tansui and are about to attack Waichow. The garrison protecting Keishi has mutinied and many of the foreign consularies have been recalled from the interior of the country.

GERMANS TAKE TRENCHES.
BERLIN, Jan. 10.—That several hundred miles of French trenches in the Champagne district have been captured by the Germans, was officially announced to-day. The fighting in that region is again violent. The Germans took 400 prisoners and a number of machine guns.

PRECIPITATION
SATURDAY AND SUNDAY
A beautiful weather that had prevailed here for some time was broken today by a cloudy, drizzly day and night was a mixture of sunshine and rain. J. G. Brown reported the rainfall on Saturday to have been .06 inches and on Sunday .06 inches.

PRESIDENT OUTLINING TRADE POLICY TO MEET VIEWS OF HOKE SMITH

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The administration will make further concessions to congress on international questions. Satisfied that the submarine question is practically settled, President Wilson is to-day busy outlining a general trade policy that will apply to all countries, but under present maritime conditions, will affect only England and France. It marks, officials say, an earnest effort on the part of Mr. Wilson to meet the views of the senatorial delegation headed by Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, who declares that American trade is being strangled by England.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—British Ambassador Spring-Rice notified Secretary Lansing to-day that Great Britain will issue no more passports to males of military age.

BACKBONE OF STRIKE APPARENTLY BROKEN

EAST YOUNGSTOWN, Jan. 10.—The backbone of the big strike was apparently broken this morning when hundreds of strikers returned to work at the plant. Anticipating trouble, however, General Speaks summoned the Fourth regiment to reinforce the Fifth and Eighth regiments already here. A large number of soldiers are ready to be rushed into the mill district at a moment's notice, should any trouble again occur. Three train-loads of strike breakers arrived during the night, and the city is alive with detectives hired by the company to protect them.

NEW HAVEN DIRECTORS NOT TO BE TRIED AGAIN?

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The opinion prevails here that William Rockefeller and four other millionaire directors of the New Haven road who failed to secure acquittal, in their recent trial for conspiracy, will never be brought to trial again. Although Prosecutor Batts states that the case will again be pushed, it is believed that Attorney-General Gregory will order the case dropped, in view of the difficulty encountered in obtaining convictions.

GERMAN PROPOSALS APPROVED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Substantial progress was made in the Lusitania negotiations to-day when the president returned to Secretary Lansing the memoranda submitted by Ambassador von Bernstorff. It is understood that President Wilson approved Germany's proposals. Shortly afterward, Bernstorff called at the state department and went into conference with Lansing.

DUPONT EXPLOSION AN ACCIDENT.

WILMINGTON, Jan. 10.—Careful investigation shows that only three men were killed by the recent explosion at the works of the DuPont Powder company. Officials of the concern are convinced that it was an accident.

ARE YOU LUCKY?

Some people who believe in signs will tell you that it is unlucky to fall overboard on Monday, to take hold of a buzz-saw in motion on Tuesday, to fall downstairs with a coal scuttle on Wednesday, to shoot yourself on Thursday or to sit down to dinner with twelve when there is only food enough for ten on Friday. But they all agree it will be a lucky day for you when you secure a house lot at

AS YOU RUN

Which would you rather be, a Teuton soldier in the trench or an American messenger on the Mediterranean?

The Latin-American republics have lately been assured by this government, through President Wilson, of the continued stability of the Monroe doctrine. In the light of present day and prospective future world conditions, this seems to be an "order" of no small dimensions, but it is one that must be filled, if it takes all the Americas together to do it.

RIGHT OR WRONG?

Far be it from us to say that Mr. Bryan's attitude toward "preparedness" is right or that it is wrong. It all depends, we think, on whether it is or is not strongly probable that the United States will be attacked by one or more of the powerful nations of the Eastern Hemisphere within the next few years.

Most Americans have little liking for the thing called militarism, and are apt to recoil before any movement that even faintly suggests the "armed fist." But, on the other hand, understanding of what really caused the conflict now raging in Europe, coupled with the realization that the United States is rapidly attaining to a position of commercial and financial supremacy likely to arouse the envy, if not the hatred, of some of the other nations, is calculated to arouse uneasiness in the minds of many of the most naturally inclined citizens of this country.

As suggested by the editor of the Manufacturer's Record, Richard H. Taft, than whom there is no man in the South of broader information and keener perception, the United States, ill-equipped as she is today for dealing herself, could offer but slight effective resistance to a really well-armed invader.

Aldrich and greed do not sleep in the same bed.

AN ASSET.

The Leesburg Commercial in its last issue discovered that Florida is an asset of no little value in the Hon. Jefferson Thomas, presiding officer of the Thomas Advertising agency, which agency, through the means of the "Florida First Commission," is doing more just now to put Florida on the map than a half dozen combined agencies, whether advertising or otherwise.

Through the strong copy which he has prepared and placed in the advertising mediums of the country, Jefferson Thomas has succeeded in commanding the attention of thousands of people. He has interested countless numbers in a visit to Florida during the past year. This is proved by the thousands of letters which have been received by boards of trade and commercial bodies whose name appeared in the "Florida First" advertising. To have merely contracted for so many inches of space without the thought of expert copy could not possibly attract so much attention. In the excellence of these ads, which commanded the whole heart and soul of the Thomas Advertising agency, that is entirely responsible for the gratifying results.

Editor Leach is entirely correct in his toast to Jeff Thomas. In looking over the year just ended, ransacking his fertile brain with the idea of writing a worthy "Who's Who," of Florida, Editor Leach's mind focussed on the direction of Jacksonville. He could think of few, if any, who were deserving of a new year's greeting than Jefferson Thomas, when the thought of those who have devoted their best energies toward the upbuilding of Florida.

The Leesburg Commercial says: 'Looking back over the year in review, we find an asset that seems to have been growing larger in this state for the past three or four years. That asset is Jeff Thomas, in person the Thomas Advertising service, of Jacksonville and Tampa. It might be said that Jeff puts the eyes in advertising in Florida, for he has dropped his shingle out the window there wasn't much of the far sort of publicity in the state itself. Some of the land companies have come outside and hired experts and were placing some good ads in Northern magazines and publications, but down inside the peninsula they waited until one of these land companies brought Jeff Thomas down from Pennsylvania, where he was grinding out copy, and showed him around the pine woods and sand hills he had been writing about.

"So Jeff settled down in Jax and began to gather in the advertising reins. He is now driving a six-in-hand, with a couple of mounted outriders for company. Of course, Florida has been pretty good to Jeff, but Florida is good to anyone who helps the game along in an intelligent way, and Jeff Thomas has not been slipping anything that wasn't his.

"Here's to you Jeff! May your smiling Irish phiz greet us every New Year with a little broader grin, fathered by prosperity, mothered by success."—Florida Metropolis.

NEW SMYRNA PARTY OF 50 COMING TO DESPLAND TUESDAY

A letter received Saturday from Editor Harry L. Rood, of the New Smyrna News, by Manager L. M. Waite, of the Despland, stated that members of the Men's club of New Smyrna and their ladies will form a dinner party at the hotel next Tuesday evening.

The party, which will include about 50 of the leading people of New Smyrna, plans to make the 15-mile trip through the country in automobiles, and is expected to arrive at the Despland at or about 7:00 o'clock Tuesday evening. Shortly afterward, dinner will be served in the hotel's main dining room.

Arrangements are being made by the management to provide a delightful evening for the hotel's New Smyrna guests. A pleasing feature will be a special musical program by the Despland orchestra.

WILBUR BY THE SEA

Among the new arrivals at Wilbur-by-the-Sea this week are Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. McLachlan, of Chelsea, Mass., and Mrs. Jessie M. Johnson, of Boston, Mass. They have rented the Branch cottage on Riverside drive for the winter months.

Miss Edith C. Moore, of Boston, Mass., has purchased from J. W. Wilbur the bungalow at 41 Oriole avenue. The cottage contains six rooms and bath, and is one of the choicest locations at Wilbur-by-the-Sea.

F. S. Bryant's yacht is being overhauled and will be launched some time this week. Mr. Bryant is expected on the 10th of January, and will occupy his bungalow on Toronita avenue for the winter season.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Cobb, of Boston, will arrive on Monday next. Their cottage on Toronita avenue is being made ready for them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilbur and daughter, Ruth, are enjoying the season at their pretty bungalow on Riverside Drive. Mr. Wilbur is much pleased with the progress of his new town and is very enthusiastic for its future development. Mr. Wilbur is an ardent fisherman and spends a great deal of his time enjoying this sport.

The yacht Addie V. is being overhauled and will soon be ready to make the regular boat trips from Daytona to Wilbur.

The regular Saturday evening social will be held at the Toronita club house on Riverside drive next Saturday at 7:30 p. m.

Diplomacy.

"Look here, Charlie," said one young undergrad to another, who had been asked to run his eye over a letter which his friend had written to his father, in which there was the inevitable request for money, "you've spelled jug, g-u-g!" "I know," said Charlie; "but you see I need the cash, and don't want the old man to think I'm putting on airs. That's how he spells it."

The Leading Nation.

In every age of the world there has been a leading nation, one of a more generous sentiment, whose citizens were willing to stand for the interests of general justice and humanity at the risk of being called by the men of the moment chimerical and fantastic. Which should be that nation but these states?—Emerson.

Bacteria in the Home.

The average house, where the rooms are only fairly ventilated, and the housekeeper is indifferent, may have from 10,000 to 15,000 bacteria to the cubic foot.

Reflection on Royalty.

During the latter years of George III's reign all performances of Shakespeare's "King Lear" were forbidden, in consequence of the madness of the king.

HOTEL ORMONDOPEN FOR SEASON*PROSPEROUS YEAR PREDICTED

FOR BIG HOTEL WHICH OPENED FOR LUNCHEON FRI-DAY NOON.

The Ormond hotel opened for luncheon Friday, and D. J. Trudeau, manager, and A. D. Wright, assistant manager, were present to extend a cordial greeting to the many former patrons
who arrived. It is a source of gratification to the guests that the hotel
entourage will be much the same as last year. Miss M. A. Clarke, as housekeeper; A. N. Chase, cashier; Thomas
A. Delaney, chief engineer; Luke Glennon, assistant cashier; Ramon S.
Stinson, front clerk; James A. Grady, night clerk; S. B. Pettengill, chef,
and Thomas P. Kennedy, of Limerick, Ireland, head bellman; Guy C. Whitman, head porter, and J. H. Looby, head waiter.

William H. Fenrich's orchestra, of New York city, is here and will be under the direction of Ernest Roent-gen, who has made the music such a popular feature at Ormond, all the members of his orchestra being men of exceptional ability. The opening concert was given daily in the afternoon and evening; and commencing in February, there will be an additional concert in the Ormond Beach clubhouse from 11 a. m., till 12:30.

Two new motor buses have replaced the old mule car service between the station and the Ormond hotel, and four trains daily, two each way, arrive and depart from the Ormond hotel.

A string of saddle horses from Bret-ton Woods, N. H., under the management of George D. Howland, has been installed, so that horseback riding
will again be a feature of Ormond.
A great many patrons are returning with their autos and chauffeurs, and the famous Ormond Beach has never been in better condition for motoring.
It is as hard and smooth as asphalt,
and is fully four hundred feet wide.

William H. Thompson, of Greenwich, Conn., who is in charge of the Ormond garage, has installed several new and up-to-date cars, which will be for hire.
George Merritt, with several assistants, is again in charge of the Ormond golf links, and Mrs. George Howland will again direct the making of the delicious cake and pastry in the Ormond pastry room, for which she is so justly famous.

The improvements made for the season consist largely of papering
and painting a hundred bed rooms,
the outside painting of the hotel, and new rugs for the lobby, and the rotunda certainly looks very smart with numberless groups of palms and flowers against the white pillars.

John D. Rockefeller, of New York city, has reserved several suites of rooms for himself and his friends,
and has set his arrival for early in February.

Among other former valued patrons
from New York city booked to return may be mentioned Mr. and Mrs.
Sutphen, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Snyder,
Mr. and Mrs. A. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs.
H. C. Irons, J. T. Dettmer, E. J. Farrell and party, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cooke, Mrs. F. Pares Osborn and Dr. and Mrs. J. Blake White, Mr. and Mrs.
Burch, of Rochester, N. Y., are also returning.

From St. Louis there will be E. C.
Simmons, of the Simmons Hardware
company; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scudder, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Carr, and Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Watts.

Philadelphia sends Mr. and Mrs.
E. J. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. A. D.
Fell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Olney, of Thompson, Conn., are to return, also Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gladding and Mr. and Mrs.
T. J. Moran, of Providence, R. I.
From Manchester, N. H., will return
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Parker, E. Carpenter and T. A. Kennedy. S. Walbridge and family and E. Cummings and family, of Toledo, O., are expected among the early arrivals, as are also Mr. and Mrs. J. Lightner, of St.
Paul, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. J. Holbrook, Boston, Mass., Mr. and Mrs.
F. M. Kirby and Mr. and Mrs. F.
Chase, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., Mrs. and Miss Helen Gurley, of Chicago, Mrs.
E. Brinkerhoff, of Englewood, N. J.,
S. L. Watson, of Fairmount, W. Va.,
will return with his family, and Mr.
and Mrs. Lenox Sheafe Rose, of Madison, N. J., will be among the first arrivals.

Mrs. George M. Pullman, of Chicago, has rented the "Casements" on the river front adjoining the hotel, from Dr. and Mrs. Harwood Huntington, of Hot Springs, Va., and will arrive at Ormond January 15, with a corps of servants, chauffeur and auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, of East Orange, N. J., have rented the other Huntington cottage, and are already occupying it.

Mrs. Worthy, of Springfield, Mass.,

and Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds, are occupying the Bonbright cottage.

The Lindsay family will occupy their mansion on the river front, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Irons have rented the Putnam cottage for the winter.

Santa Lucia cottage, adjoining the hotel, has been rented to Miss Elizabeth M. Frothingham, of Wilson Park, Tarrytown, N. Y., and Coacoohee is already occupied by Mrs. F. W.
Stanley and Miss Gertrude Pence, of Chicago.

Mrs. J. D. Price, of Hammock Home,
has been entertaining a house party
over the Christmas holidays, consisting of her brother, Prof. Burnett J.
Pinkerton, Mrs. Pinkerton and Miss Pearl Pinkerton, of Kentucky, Miss
M. A. Stout, of Fair Isle, Scotland, and
L. B. Knox, of Mound Grove, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Corre, of Ridge-haven cottage, are entertaining Mrs.
C. Roberts, of New York city, this winter.

PLAN TO PUT END TO THE ECONOMIC CAUSES OF WAR

WELLESLEY, Mass., Jan. 10.—Many leading thinkers gathered here today
for the annual convention of the Society to Eliminate Economic Causes of War, in which Roger Babson is the moving spirit. A committee met the delegates at the Wellesley Inn this afternoon and took them on walks and motor car drives about the town.

Later in the afternoon there was a reception at Wellesley Inn, which will be followed by a complimentary informal dinner given by Isaac Sprague,
president of the society, at the Inn.
The sessions will continue tomorrow
and Monday.

The purposes of the society's work
are:

1. The freedom of the sea. No single nation, entente nor alliance shall hold the control of the seas. Not England alone nor her allies, not Germany alone nor her allies, not the United States, Japan, nor any other nation or limited combinations of nations. The seas must be controlled by all nations

combined.

2. The modification of such existing tariff and immigration laws as selfishly prevent other nations from securing what is rightfully due them,

TOURIST'S CLASS HEARS REV. SERL

Rev. Elmer Willis Serl, of the Tourist Union church of Seabreeze, gave a successful and helpful talk at the meeting of the Tourist's Bible class of the Daytona Beach Methodist Sunday school yesterday morning. Talk for his subject, "Christianity's Method of Pink," Rev. Serl commenced his address with a clear explanation of his text, found in Luke 11:22.

"Pink," said Mr. Serl, "is that which is mixed or tainted," and dividing the main theme into three sub-topics, "pink mind, pink heart and pink society," he embodied in his talk the thought that many people think that when it is easy to do so, but fail when it is necessary to make a sacrifice against their own selfishness.

"With pink hearts," said Mr. Serl, "we can never eradicate our great social evils. The heart must be first right."

In analyzing the topic of "pink society," he asserted that man's individual responsibility is not in the least lessened by being a member of an organization. In other words, a man of men have no more moral obligations on account of their union than does any individual. The legal responsibility of a thing does not injure its justness.

Rev. Serl also spoke of Jesus, his life of indifference and, in closing, urged that the man who is down must rise in thought and principle, and he who is on a higher plane must stoop to help the individual of lower standing. By this union the social life which exists in the present condition of society can be bettered.

The interesting and instructive address was preceded by a Bible talk by Rev. J. J. Treadwell on "The Self-Realization of Jesus."

Rev. Chas. W. Crook, of Jacksonville, superintendent of the Anti-Slavery League of Florida, will speak before the class soon. An open invitation is extended to all. Rev. Crook's address will be announced later in the week.

PRELIMINARY HEARING OF STATE VS. HANEY

The preliminary trial of the case of the state of Florida against J. D. Haney was held this morning before Justice of the Peace J. W. Williams, of Seabreeze, at the Seabreeze town hall.

The charge was assault and battery and the defendant pleaded not guilty. At 9:15 the trial commenced, the defendant being represented by Attorney F. W. Pope, of Daytona. R. L. Hodges, colored, was the principal witness for the state and testified that he had witnessed an altercation between R. S. Clark and Haney, who are former partners in the cleaning and pressing business in Daytona Beach. Hodges stated that he saw the defendant raise his arm to strike a blow but saw nothing further.

Stanley Strother and C. C. Davis testified for the defendant, that Clark had shown them his injured thumb which he claimed to have received from a blow by Haney, and had said that it was received from hitting his thumb with a hammer while trying to drive a nail.

Justice Williams continued the case over to 9 a. m. Wednesday morning, when he will give his decision.

RUTH LAW AWAKES ALL LATE SLEEPERS

The buzzing engine of Ruth Law's aeroplane awakes all late sleepers along the beach front on the pleasant mornings. The aviator has found that early morning is an ideal time of day to perform her dare-devil feats in the air, and for that reason early risers only can witness her stunts. The tide is also low in the morning at present, which gives Miss Law the clear, wide beach for landing.

CONFERENCE YEAR OF LOCAL METHODIST CHURCH EXPIRES

Last night's 7:00 o'clock service finished the conference year of the Daytona Beach Methodist Episcopal church. A good sized congregation was present in spite of outdoor dampness, and everyone present appreciated the feeling of Mr. Treadwell when at the close of his fine sermon he gave a few simple words of farewell, saying that he might never be privileged to speak to them again from the pulpit.

Every Sunday since Rev. Treadwell has preached here, he has observed the beautiful custom of shaking hands with each member of the congregation as they passed out the door homeward. As a last request before leaving for the St. Johns conference, Tuesday, he asked all to come up to the rostrum and shake hands before going home last night.

Every member of the church earnestly hopes for Mr. Treadwell's return, and wish him to rest assured that he has completely won their hearts during his first year here.

Last night's service was also marked by an exceptionally well sung anthem by the young people's choir, "My Soul Panteth for Thee, O, God."

The "SILENT SMITH"

—Model 8 shows what should now be expected of a typewriter.

Ball Bearings Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8. Among them are:

Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.

Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating. There is no extra charge for this convenience.

Variable Line Spacer—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter spacing. A great help in card work.

Faster Ribbon Feed—Insures new place of impact for each typeface.

Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained—ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer, key-controlled ribbon, removable platen, protected type, flexible paper feed and automatic ribbon reverse.

Write for New Catalog of Model 8. It will explain why the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter is a synonym for superior service.

Some of the Songs of Tommy Atkins

LONDON, Jan. 19.—On the march, or in his huts and tents, the soldier will sing any song which takes his fancy, but better than all the rest he likes the songs he makes himself. Perhaps when the war is over some industrious person will make us an anthology of the songs the British army invented for itself, but unless he is already at work he will miss many of the best of them.

There are a few songs of unbounded popularity which would not look well in print. If I were to write out the verses of that cheerful ditty which begins, "When I went to Gibraltar," or that other which treats of one William who was a sailor, the very men who sing them on the march would go away into quiet corners to blush if they saw the words in print.

The chorus to "John Brown's Body" is, of course, eternally popular, and its popularity has been inalterable. "Glory, glory, hallelujah" roars the platoon, and then,

Glory, glory, hallelujah!

As we go rolling home,

Happy is the man who swallowed a dustbin.

As we go rolling home.

Most of these chanties are very short, but there are some which are capable of infinite expansion, according to the ingenuity of the battalion band. Here is a verse of one of them:

There's a copper on his beat over there,

There's a copper on his beat over there,

There's a copper on his beat, you can tell him by his feet,

There's a copper on his beat over there.

Another popular form of the choral insult is:

With the Middlesex in the firing line,
And the R. F. A., behind them,
But when we look for the A. S. C.,
I'm hanged if we can find them.

You alpher the names of the units,
Of course, to suit yourself, sing lustily,
and—look out for trouble.

There are a few ditties which combine instruction with amusement:

At the halt on the left form platoon,
At the halt on the left form platoon,
If the odd numbers don't mark time
two paces

How the deuce can the rest form platoon?

Various regiments sing their own praises, and the different battalions often have different versions of the song. The Middlesex regiment, for instance, have a song. I have been trying to get at the original version of it for months, entirely without success:

We are the Middlesex boys,
We know our manners,
We spend our tanners,
We are respected wherever we go.

When we pass along the high road,
Doors and windows open wide,
When you hear the sergeants shout,
"Put those blessed Woodbines out!"
We are the Middlesex boys!

The following is an American tune of "I want to be way back in Dixie":

You ought to join,
You ought to join,
You ought to join Fred Karno's army,
Great big boots and blisters on your feet,
Seven bob a week and nothing at all
You ought to join,
You ought to join,
You ought to join Fred Karno's army.

The following is to the American tune of "I want to be way back in Dixie":

We march in fours,
We march in file,
We do squad drill all the blooming while,
You ought to join Fred Karno's gang.

Send out the army and the navy,
Send out the rank and file,
Send out the brave Territorials,
They can very nearly march a mile,
(I don't think!)

Send out the lads of the Boy's brigade—
They will keep old England free—
Send out my mother, my sister and my brother,
But for goodness sake don't send me!

I wonder what would happen to a German soldier who dared to sing anything like this:

We are but little soldiers meek,
We only get seven bob a week;
The more we do the more we may;
It makes no difference to our pay.

How all these songs are made, where they come from, or how it happens that they are known to all the army, I cannot tell. They are a part of that queer inheritance which awaits every newly-attested recruit. If they have no other merit, it should be remembered that they have carried very many thousands of weary men over the miles of their journeying along the roads which carry them to their share in the red business of our time.

CANAL AGAIN OPEN FOR BOATS, REPORT FROM PALM BEACH

Capt. W. B. McCoy received a telegram Monday morning stating that the steamer U. S. A. passed Palm Beach at 10:00 a. m. Sunday morning on her way to Miami. This would indicate that the obstructions existing in the canal north of Palm Beach have been removed as it is also likely has been the one south of that city. H. E. Pence, it seems, received a telegram to this effect a few days ago. Mr. Pence took the matter up with interested persons in Miami and a suction dredge was sent out from Palm Beach early last week, to open the obstructed places, and probably accomplished the work before the end of the week.

KNOCKED INSENSIBLE BY BLOCK OF WOOD

A. A. Wales, of Wales & Byrd, met with a painful accident Saturday that verged closely on being a very serious or fatal one. Mr. Wales was superintending the unloading of a car of wood at the railway freight yards and the man engaged in opening the door of the car having some difficulty in doing so Mr. Wales went to his assistance. The door gave way suddenly and at the same time a heavy squared block of wood was dislodged from the top tier in the car and fell upon Mr. Wales, striking him upon the head and knocking him insensible. His companion was just preparing to summon a physician when Mr. Wales regained consciousness. A fortunate circumstance was the fact that a flat side, instead of a corner or sharp edge of the block, struck Mr. Wales' head. As it was, the weight of the blow affected his neck even more than the place of contact on his head. He was able to be around after the accident, although his head and neck were very sore and his neck, especially, very stiff as a result.

SAINT AUGUSTINE'S NEW POSTMASTER IS C. F. HOPKINS, SR.

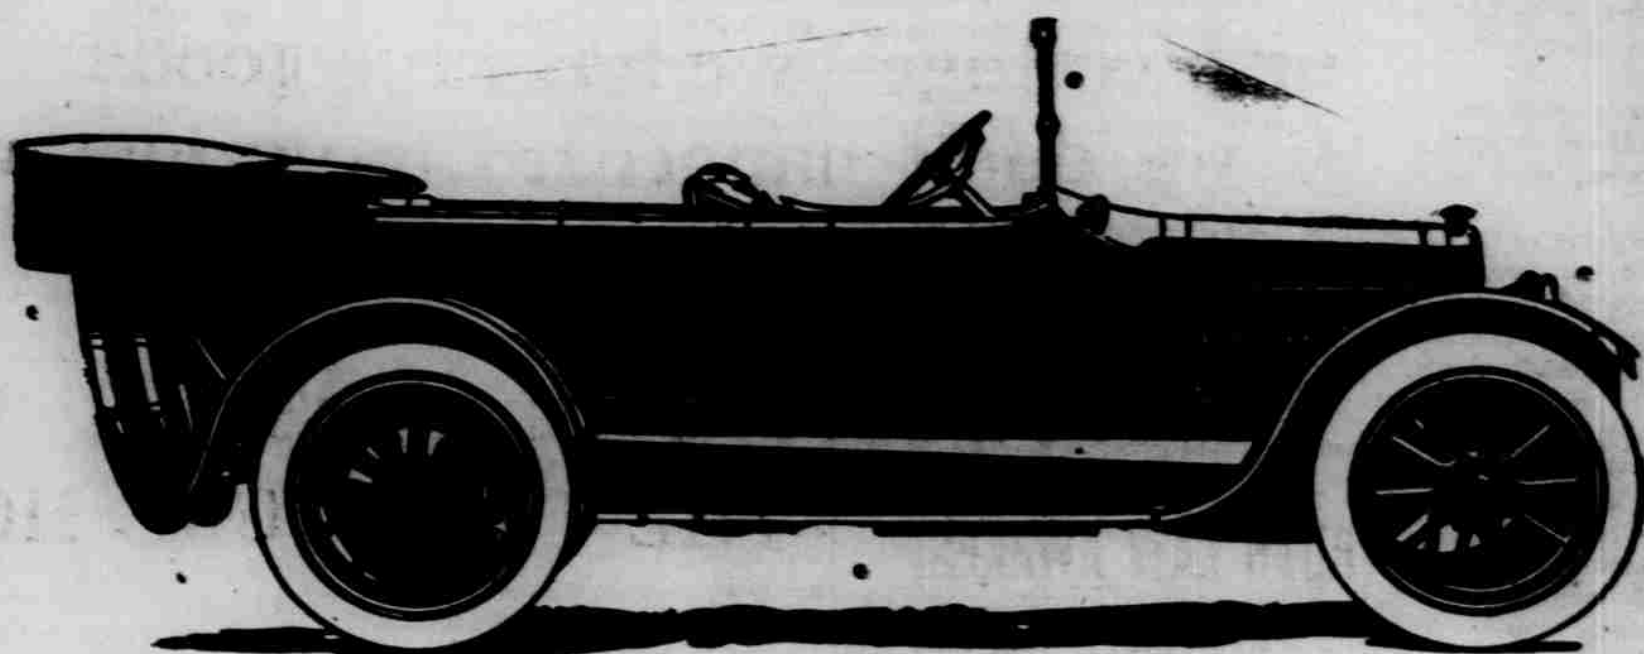

That C. F. Hopkins, Sr., will be the next postmaster for the city of St. Augustine was announced by the Record last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Hopkins was nominated for the office by President Wilson on Friday last, and his name sent to the senate for confirmation. Continuing, the Record said: "There will be no delay in the ratification of the president's appointment when it comes before the senate as Mr. Hopkins is on the best of terms with Florida's two senators."

"The appointment of Mr. Hopkins to the office came as a pleasant surprise yesterday, despite the fact that he and his friends were fully convinced that he was the choice of Congressman Sears. The news did not come direct to Mr. Hopkins, but through the insurance agencies who notified their agents here of the appointment and instructed them to see Mr. Hopkins relative to his bond. The telegrams began arriving shortly before 4 o'clock and the few friends of Mr. Hopkins who learned of his good fortune hastened to call him on the telephone to extend congratulations."

As to Old King Cole.
Mother Goose tells us that Old King Cole was a merry old soul. Therefore, we presume he had the laughing habit. It would be interesting to know what made him chuckle all over when he called for his pipe, and called for his bowl, and called for his fiddlers three. Does psychology contain an answer for this?—Chicago Herald.

"TESS OF THE STORM COUNTRY" AT THE CRESCENT TODAY

At the Crescent theater today will be shown "Tess of the Storm Country," with Mary Pickford in the leading role.

The story is that of Tessie Skinner, a wild, motherless little elf, who lives with her father in a rude hut on the shore of Cayuga lake. On account of the sudden and regular squalls on the lake, the vicinity is called the "Storm Country," while the poor and ignorant fisher-folk thereabout are generally known as "squatters." Tess is one of these people, and adores her uncouth father, who lives by poaching and the illegal netting of fish. One day he is found near the body of a murdered game-keeper with a rifle close by containing one empty chamber. Skinner is accused of the murder and convicted on circumstantial evidence. Tess is frantic with grief and anxiety, but

Frederick Graves, a handsome theological student, and his sister Teola, befriend Tess. Frederick tells her of God, of whom she has never heard, and His written word, the Bible, and bids her pray and have faith. Tess steals a Bible from the mission church, painfully spells out the lessons taught her by Frederick, and the untutored girl's faith brings her a wonderful strength and hope. Professor Young, an eminent legal authority and an influence in the community, touched by her profound faith in a power that will aid her father, intercedes for her and secures a new trial for her father. Tess is happy over this evidence of God's love for her, but gives Frederick Graves more credit than she does the professor. Tess and Frederick meet again, and one day as they stand in the squalid hut, looking into each other's eyes, Tess innocently receives her first kiss of love. Frederick loves and reveres the little ignorant girl for her pure nature and strong faith, and Tess, who hardly knows what has come into her bleak life, puts Frederick upon her pedestal of faith and almost worships him as a symbol of the God she does not understand. Elder Elias

Graves, Frederick's father, a religious but bigoted and narrow man, the relentless enemy of the "squatters," does his best to secure the conviction of Tess' father. Teola Graves is betrothed to Dan Jordan, who perishes in a fire and leaves Teola worse than a widow. Teola does not dare tell her proud, harsh father of her pitiful plight. Tess hears her weeping one day in the woods, and takes her to the hut, sheltering her there when her babe is born. To shield Teola, Tess takes the child and cares for it. Frederick finds the baby there on one of his calls, and circumstances force him to believe it is Tess' child. Rather than expose and disgrace his sister, who is now very ill, Tess allows him to believe the child hers, and he denounces her as a worthless woman, taking her Bible from her. Tess, seeing his cruel anger and unfaith, knows that her idol has fallen also, but declares that though he has taken her Bible, he cannot take away her God, and, left alone, falls on her knees in prayer. Her life now becomes a hard one, indeed. Her father is still in prison. Frederick avoids her, the other "squatters" comment openly on her "fall," and one of the fishermen persecutes and insults her, but she persists in her sacrifice for Teola and her faith in God. At last, in a tragically dramatic scene, Elder Graves publicly denounces Tess and the fatherless babe she holds to her breast. But Teola, roused by her father's denunciation of Tess, can remain silent no longer, and now comes forward and in the presence of the big assemblage takes her baby in her arms and claims it as her own. The proud Elder Graves is overwhelmed with shame and remorse, and Tess is freed from the shadow of disgrace. Teola and her sickly baby both die, and the Elder writes a pleading note to Tess for her forgiveness, which the humble Frederick bears to her. Tess, nobly understanding and forgiving all, goes to Frederick's waiting arms; another fisherman is found to be the murderer of the game-keeper; her father is liberated, and Tess finds the reward of her faith in a great love and happiness.

THE WEATHER

Daytona has the laugh on the northwestern part of the State. The weather man says that he is down on that side, anyway, and is going to send a cold storm that made us miserable on Friday up there, to worry the lightnings tonight. He also adds that the sun will be turned on full around here for some little time
—unless he changes his mind.
The portion of Florida under sensation will also receive fresh southwestern and south winds, while Daytona is brushed for moderate breezes from the northeast to east.

ALL OF LOTS IN PROGRESS

WEST OF THE COUNTY ROAD

The fill being made in the J. E.
Harrison lots on the river front in the southern part of the town of Daytona has been completed east of the county road and the F. A. Root dredge is now engaged in removing material from the river
to that portion of the property making filling west of the road. The fill to the east of the road has been to a considerable elevation at the river in order to provide good drainage.

THE YACHT AWA LEAVES FOR SOUTHERN PORTS

The yacht Awa, owned by A. D.
Harrison, of New York, left the club
this morning on her way to Miami and points south. Mr. Cochran made a pleasant trip from the city.
She came through the canals from Jacksonville, stopping for a brief period at St. Augustine. It is his intention to cruise for some little time
along the picturesque keys of Biscayne bay and Card sound.

Emotional Expression.

"All races of men," says Darwin,
"the expression of good spirits seems to be the same, and it is easily recognized." And he adds that "from the highest of New Zealand to the highly civilized Caucasian much the same kind of emotional expression are to be observed."

way, is a Daytona visitor today in the interest of that road. Mr. Camp, whose headquarters is in Jacksonville, is making his initial trip along the East Coast in his official capacity of traveling passenger agent for the Seaboard. Possessed of a pleasing personality, Mr. Camp will undoubtedly make friends readily in his new ter-

If you read it in the Daily News it is pretty apt to be just that way.

Mrs. George A. Alden, of Andover, Mass., who is touring in her automobile through Florida, is spending a few days with her former school friend, Miss Hattie W. Brown, at 29

is very fair and charming.

Y., to spend the season with Mrs.
Rightmire and family at the First Baptist church parsonage on North Palmetto avenue. Leaving home
amidst snow and ice they find it difficult to realize that the beautiful weather prevailing here is the usual
winter weather of this section.

Mr. Pester Explains.
"When I am downtown and see a presumably intelligent young woman
making a fool of herself over a measly runt of a dog, I fret and fume all the way home," said P. G. Pester.
"Then I look in the mirror and think that, after all, she might have done
worse!"—Kansas City Star.

AUTOS LOCK WHEELS ON NEW SMYRNA ROAD

Two automobile parties luckily escaped a casualty list yesterday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock when their machines locked wheels on the New Smyrna road, just north of Nordman's orange grove. A seven-passenger Packard touring car pulled well over to the side to allow a Ford touring car, which was traveling toward Daytona, to pass. Because of the heavy sand, the automobiles locked wheels. The heavier machine crashed its way through the front wheel of the Ford, breaking the spring, bending the axle and warping the running gear. For a moment, it looked as if the occupants might be thrown out
and seriously hurt.

When the cars came to a full stop,
it was discovered that the Packard
had suffered a bent axle, a broken hub-cap and a tire half ripped from the rim. No one was even scratched, however. The big car was able to proceed after the shoe had been changed, but the Ford was helpless.

Some passing motorists brought in the stranded party, and James Keen-
an of this city, owner of the Ford, notified the Daytona Auto Supply company of the accident. The garage sent a crew with a service car
to the rescue and put a pair of skid wheels under the Ford. They successfully towed the disabled machine into Daytona early in the evening.

A member of the Packard party said, in speaking of the affair: "We pulled well over into the bushes to allow the other car to pass, but the driver lost control when his right-hand front wheel hit the deep sand,
throwing him across the road."

W. Parsons, C. P. Mills, Pete Rodgers, Ralph R. Richards, C. Gittens and
B. Hurd were the passengers in the Packard.

WELL KNOWN RESIDENT DIES AT HOLLY HILL

MRS. L. E. CAVE DIED EARLY SUN-DAY MORNING—SERVICES HELD
AT 10:00 A. M. AND REMAINS FORWARDED TODAY.

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Cave, wife of Lotan E. Cave, died at their home in Holly Hill at about 4:00 o'clock
Sunday morning.

Funeral services were held at the residence at 10:00 o'clock Sunday morning. Rev. S. L. Jackson, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, officiating, and the remains were brought to the undertaking establishment of the Bingham & Maley company to be prepared for transportation to Harrison, Tenn., for interment in the family burial ground. Mrs.
Cave, who was but 41 years of age,
had been in ill health for several years. Her condition became alarming last week, but she rallied and for a time seemed somewhat improved.

Mrs. Cave is survived by her husband and seven small children, four boys and three girls, the oldest a girl of 16 years. She is also survived by her mother and other relatives at Harrison, where her father, Judge Bell, now deceased, was for many years judge of the criminal court of Hamilton county, of which Harrison is the county seat.

Mr. Cave is himself too ill to take the remains to Harrison and the body
will be accompanied by his brother,
Vet Cave, leaving this afternoon at 3:42 o'clock.

The bereaved husband and children
and other relatives will have the deep sympathy of many friends in this city
and vicinity as well as at Holly Hill, where Mr. and Mrs. Cave have resided for the past 16 years or longer.

Knew the Meaning of It.
"Pa, what does it mean when a public man is said to be at the zenith of his popularity?" "It means, my son,"
replied the defeated candidate, ruefully, "that he is about ready to hit the toboggan."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

HOTEL CLARENDON BALL TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

HUNDREDS OF GUESTS ATTEND THE AFFAIR

A DELICIOUS DINNER AND FINE
MUSIC MARK SIXTH ANNUAL OPENING BALL OF THE FAMOUS HOSTELRY.

Eclipsing all former events of its kind, the brilliant sixth annual opening ball of the world-renowned Hotel Clarendon, which occurred Saturday night, has passed into history, leaving behind to the hundreds who attended memories of a charming evening.

According to program, the dining room opened promptly at 6:30. The greater number of guests, however, did not take their seats until well on toward 8:00 o'clock. For more than two hours doormen were busy with the endless line of cars that glided up to the main entrance of the hotel and deposited their burdens of gentlemen in evening dress and handsomely gowned women. Despite the efforts of the well-trained force of bell-boys and maids in constant attendance, the coat-rooms and corridors were crowded with arriving guests. Automobiles were packed in two solid rows along the boulevard and Clarendon approach.

Dinner proved to be a sumptuous and pleasing affair. The plain decorations of the Clarendon dining room brought into strong relief the gaily dressed throngs, and the hum of laughter and excited conversation lent such life to the atmosphere as one rarely sees beyond the limits of the white lights of New York. While the service was as rapid and quietly refined as could be wished for, there was just enough confusion to emphasize the vast number of people in the big room ablaze with electric lights.

Certainly the chef, stewards and head waiters outdid themselves in setting before the assembly a dinner that will go down in the annals of Clarendon history as a masterpiece. The menu follows:

Little Neck Clams on Half Shell
Grapefruit Cocktail in Shell
Consomme Barigoule
Green Turtle, Clear
Cream of Chicken, Victoria
Celery Queen Olives, Salted Almonds
Col. Skinner's Chutney
Broiled Bluefish, Maitre de Hotel Butter

Individual Plank Steak, Clarendon Style
Japan Crabmeat, Newburg, in Calisses
Sweetbreads, Larded a la Rothschild
Queen Fritters, Chantausen Sauce
Roast Ribs of Beef, Dish Gravy
Stuffed Green Duckling, Fried Hominy

Roast Leg of Lamb, Brown Gravy or Mint Sauce
Boiled New Potatoes Mashed Potatoes

More than 40 individual dinner parties were given by prominent members of Daytona and Seabreeze society. Table reservations were made many weeks in advance and those that delayed until the last minute failed to secure even seats. Daniel F. O'Keefe, head waiter, personally arranged each party with the host or hostess, and it is safe to say that the result warranted the extra amount of time and care spent in preparation.

Among those who entertained were H. E. Pence, E. B. Putnam, J. M. Rogers, M. E. Haywood, M. L. Stanley, J. D. C. Morris, E. C. Williams, J. Armstrong, H. H. Windsor, Elmer Oliver, W. S. Walcott, J. S. Ford, A. Vande Vord, A. E. Donnelly, M. P. Cornwall, Dr. A. T. Bigelow, Dr. J. P. Esch, L. H. Thompson, Jr., W. M. Hankins, Sidney Haigh, E. J. Armstrong, S. S. Pierson, H. H. Craig, Mrs. Davis, Mr. Alter, S. Y. Parker, A. P. Brantley, Alonzo McCormick, Dr. C. C. Bohannon, C. H. Stansbury, M. Treglon, D. F. Fuquay, Mr. Jaycocks, W. F. Ayers, Dr. S. M. Long, Hubbard and Gress, D. D. McDonnell, Miss Keating, Ernest B. Green, Mayor Lott, F. N. Conrad, Dumont Clark.

After dinner, the parties broke up into couples and promenaded through the foyer, stopping here and there to chat with friends. A large number gathered about a roaring open fire which was welcome, owing to the sudden drop in temperature.

The music started at 9:00 o'clock sharp and such music it was! H. A. Tucker, leader of the Clarendon eight-piece orchestra, understands the meaning of dance time. And what is fully as important, the seven others are skilled in the art of syncopation. A large number of those present sought the ball-room, either to whirl away to the latest rag or to sit on the side lines and watch the interlacing throng. Between dances the couples walked on the broad verandas or lounged in the lobby. At least 150 persons graced the floor and fully 100 onlookers might have been counted.

The music continued well into the wee hours and many of the guests did not take their departure until after the last piece.

There is no doubt but that the 1916 opening ball of the Clarendon will be something to look back upon for some time with a tingling of pleasure by Daytona society and the hotel guests.

Among those who registered for dinner were John Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. C. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Waite, C. O. Chamberlin, Mr. and Mrs. Dumont Clark, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Niver, Mr. and Mrs. M. Cossacks.
The Cossacks are the rough riders of Europe. As the cowboys of the American plains and the Guachos of the pampas, the Cossacks are an intensely interesting, wild, free, plain folk, who live in the saddle in the open places and whose rough democracy is the expression of the same naive, rudimentary culture as that of their new world brothers-in-spirit.

CUBAN RAILWAYS ARE GETTING EQUIPMENT

Great quantities of rolling stock and other equipment for the United Railways of Havana and the Central Cuba railway have recently been passing south over the Florida and Coast railway. On Saturday a whole train load went through in the afternoon and a freight later in the evening carried many cars of the material.

A Relief.
"How did you come to lose your liberty?" asked the visitor at the penitentiary. "I ain't lost it," replied the prisoner. "Before I came to this institution I couldn't turn around that the police wasn't watchin' me. You don't know what a relief it is to be in a place that's run on the honest system."

CULTIVATE POWER OF ENDURANCE BY EATING LOTS SUGAR

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Cultivate a sweet tooth if you wish to cultivate endurance powers.

"Sugar," the medics say, "has wonderful food values; it is an excellent body builder and, best of all, it furnishes fuel for muscular effort and gives to its constant user a limitless supply of energy."

And now comes Hannes Kohlmaier, the remarkable distance runner and Mel Sheppard, the veteran but ever wonderful sprinter, who back up those medical opinions with recitals of their experiences.

"Early in my youth I found that I was a fair runner, but I seemed to lack the necessary endurance," declares Kohlmaier. "One of my friends advised me to eat sugar. He suggested that I eat five or six lumps in the morning and the same number at night."

"I tried the experiment and in less than a month I found that I could run double the distance of before and feel just as fresh. I never let a day go by without eating 12 or 15 sugar lumps or a large quantity of milk chocolate or other kinds of candy."

Sheppard's Experience.

"I was just a kid when I began racing—and I had a fondness for sweets," says Sheppard. "In those early days I worked in a sugar factory. Every time I passed any of the open barrels—which was four or five times a day—I used to grab a handful of the sugar and eat it."

"I had amazing endurance powers in those days. No matter how far I ran, or how fast, I never seemed to get tired."

"Eventually I quit that job and took another—where sugar barrels were unknown. In a few months I began to notice a change in myself. The old stamina seemed gone. I grew fatigued after running only a few miles at a dog trot. I became discouraged and thought I was going back. Then one day I learned about a doctor advising a man who was in a run-down condition to eat sugar."

"I recalled that I'd quit eating sugar when I quit my other job and that since then I lacked the old endurance. Right away I hustled out and bought a few pounds of sugar. I ate sizeable quantities of it every day and in a short time the old energy returned. And I've been eating sugar ever since."

Other Sugar Eaters.

Villar Myronen, a Finnish runner with an international reputation, dissolves a half dozen sugar lumps in a glass of water three times a day and drinks the mixture. Jean Bouin, the world's champion in the one-hour races, eats a half dozen handfuls of sugar daily and doubles the dose on the days before he races.

Many of the six-day bike riders eat from a quarter to a half pound of pure sugar, candy or milk chocolate daily. The majority of the European wrestlers whose endurance powers are truly remarkable eat sugar.

The tennis stars on the other side long ago discovered the fuel-supplying power of sugar—and they eat it regularly.

And so it goes down the gamut of athletics. Those who have succeeded in the contests of endurance, those who have withstood the ravages of age, invariably have been sugar eaters.

Guard Against Contagious Disease.

Cars containing apparatus for disinfecting the clothing and baggage of passengers who have been exposed to contagious diseases have been put into service by an Italian railroad.

Race Characteristics.

The Jew has little feeling for the particular. He loves man rather than men, and from Isaiah to Karl Marx he holds the record on projects of social amelioration. The Jew loves without romance and fights without hatred. He is loyal to his purposes rather than to persons.—Exchange.

Value of Acquaintance.

A gentleman who was spending a month in the Highlands went to hire a carriage for the purpose of taking his family for a drive. He looked at a vehicle and inquired how many it would hold. The ostler scratched his head thoughtfully and replied: "It holds four generally, but six if they're well acquainted!"

Perfection of Manners.
To be always thinking about your manners is not the way to make them good; the very perfection of manners is not to think about yourself.—Whately.

Useless.
Knicker—"Smith thinks the world is his oyster and he is the knife to open it." Bocker—"It wouldn't do him any good, his best girl would eat it."—Judge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Snyder and children, of Pittsburg, Pa., have rented and are occupying one of Mrs. O. W. Stevens' cottages, 65 Third avenue, for the season. This is their first season in Daytona, but they have spent the winter at other places in the state, including Orlando and Ocala Hill. They are very much pleased with this city and expect to especially enjoy their stay here through the fact that they have friends and acquaintances among the members of the Pittsburg contingent in Daytona and vicinity.

AT ARCADE TODAY:
MORE OF "DIAMOND
FROM THE SKY"

The synopsis of preceding chapters is as follows: A bitter feud exists between Col. Arthur Stanley and his cousin, Judge Lamar Stanley. The feud has been engendered over the possession of a family heirloom, "The Diamond From the Sky," that was found in a fallen meteor by an adventurer ancestor. The feud is augmented by the death of a relative in England which makes the first born male in the elder Stanley family heir to an earldom. When a baby is born to Colonel Stanley and his wife

Synopsis of the chapter being shown today, "The Silent Witness" is as follows: Arthur questions Blair's presence in Esther's house at that hour of the night. Blair's answer affects Esther's name. Arthur insisting upon vengeance, drags Blair to the cemetery where they fight a duel.

The ancient city of Lyons, the third city in France, with a population of 500,000, vies with Milan in importance in the world's silk industry. No fewer than 40,000 people—men, women and children—are employed in the factories.

OHIO PEOPLE REGISTER AT THE GILLE DRUG STORE

Ohio people now in Daytona and vicinity who have not already registered in the Ohio society registration book at the Gille drug store are requested to do so. This registration not only enables persons from the Buckeye state to locate friends who are here but is a basis upon which provision may be made for entertainment at the annual meeting and other occasions by the executive committee.

FUNERAL SERVICES WERE HELD SUNDAY

REMAINS OF MRS. E. DILLING-
HAM INTERRED IN PINWOOD
CEMETERY AFTER BEAUTIFUL
SERVICE.

Funeral services were held Sunday
afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in the Bingham & Maley company parlors, over the remains of Mrs. E. Dillingham, a well-known resident of Daytona,
whose death occurred early Saturday morning. The services were largely attended by relatives and intimate friends of the family.

The service was opened with the singing of "Nearer, My God, to Thee,"
and a touching feature was afforded through the forethought of A. K. Brokaw, by the Saracina band playing softly the same beautiful hymn as the funeral cortege left the undertaking
parlors for Pinewood cemetery, Daytona Beach, where the interment was made.

Rev. Holmes S. Rightmire, pastor of the First Baptist church, offered a prayer and read a Scripture verse,
and Rev. Marian Carpenter, minister of the gospel of spiritualism, delivered the funeral address, using as her theme, "But Is Passed From Death Unto Life." The service was a very beautiful and touching one.

Mrs. Dillingham was one of the family of 13 children, all born at Cedar Keys or vicinity, of whom only three now survive, Mrs. N. A. Blitch, of Tallahassee, S. W. Edwards, of Williston, and Mrs. B. P. Smith, of this city. Mrs. Blitch is the eldest member of the family.

notice that the former president of the Chinese re-

will be the most imposing ever staged in the Far East. In settling on such an early date for the ceremony, Yuan defied the entente powers.

D.H.S. TEAM DEFEATED BY STETSON ACADEMY

DAYTONA BOYS SCORE MORE

POINTS AGAINST RIVALS THAN

IN ANY PREVIOUS GAME THEY

HAVE PLAYED THIS YEAR.

The Daytona high school basket ball team was defeated by the fast quintet representing Stetson academy Saturday afternoon at the Arcade. The game proved to be one of the fastest
and closest played this year by D.
H. S. A good-sized audience was present and lent much enthusiasm to the players by their lusty cheering.

The score at the end of the first half stood 23 to 20 in favor of the DeLand boys. During this half W.
Sullivan shot a number of the best baskets made on the local court. Sullivan has been playing stellar ball of late. Rutherford, center for the Stetson team, shot four excellent baskets while his opponent, Q. Branch, also proved his mettle.

In the second half, the baskets made by R. Green represented some pretty fine work for the wearers of the blue and silver. Gilliland, forward of the opposing team, exhibited much skill in shooting fouls, while his side partner, Miller, made five field goals.

At the end of the second half the score stood even and excitement ran high. This necessitated an extra five-minute period during which the Stetson boys made five points. The guards of the local team played much better ball than in previous contests
and deserve the credit of every student of the D. H. S.

Summary and line-up:

D. H. S.	Position	Stetson
Miller	r. f.	R. Green
Gilliland	l. f.	W. Sullivan
Rutherford	c.	Branch
Minter	r. g.	R. Doty
Harkness	l. g.	O. Sullivan

Score: D. H. S. 39, Stetson academy 44.

Field goals: Branch 7, Green 5,
W. Sullivan 5, Doty 1, Miller 5, Gilliand 8, Rutherford 5. Foul goals:

Gilliland 8, Green 3.

OHIO MUSICIANS AT NAUTILUS CASINO

From Ohio, on Saturday afternoon,
the Caps Trio of instrumental musicians arrived in Daytona to spend the season. The Caps Trio have had wide experience in dance and concert work
in all parts of the country, and have been engaged to furnish music at the Nautilus casino during the remainder of the winter period. J. J. Wegman, manager for the Nautilus, says these just-arrived musicians have all the late popular music and that they play it with the proper snap and "go"
so necessary in good dance music.

The Caps Trio will play at the Nautilus every afternoon and evening.

PERRY C. HOLCOMB DIES

Rev. Wm. J. Drew will officiate.

Selection of a Wife.

In France, Germany, China, Japan
and many other countries, wives are selected for the man by the parents,
with the assumption that the parents
being older and having larger experience with life, are better capable of selecting a wife than the inexperienced youth. It is not yet proved that this is an unwise course.—Ex-

HOTEL CLEVELAND RECEIVING GUESTS

Opening today for the season of 1916 is the charming and cozy hotel,
the Cleveland, conducted by the very pleasant and kindly lady, Mrs. S. B.
Green, the proprietor.

This hotel has been conducted by Mrs. Green, who is a resident of Daytona, for a number of seasons, and has always had a "full house" from the beginning to the end of the season.

The house does not cater to "inner man," having rooms
which are steam-heated, airy,
with plenty of windows,
central location, too, on Magnolia
avenue, right near Beach street,
it ideal for those who desire to their meals away from their house.

Mrs. Green is very optimistic
good season, and has a good for the next three months, a number of people who were at house last year returning for the ter of 1916.
